Learn about Costa Rica’s philosophy of peace, as well as its economic, political and environmental implications. While in the capital of San Jose, learn from the country’s experts on economics, security, sustainability, education. Visit the United Nations University for Peace, Earth University, the Monteverde cloud forest, the U.S. Embassy, and the Costa Rica History Museum. On the weekend, choose from several options, including an ocean beach, a canopy walk in a cloud forest, or just shopping and museums in San Jose.
